

WHAT IS LIBERTY? ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S BRAVE IDEA GRADES 4-12

President Lincoln's Cottage

Presented by: Michelle Martz, Program Coordinator

Tuesday, March 13: 10-10:50am CT and 1-1:50pm CT

For a quarter of his presidency, President Lincoln chose to move his family from the White House to a cottage on a hilltop overlooking the city. They made this move three summers in a row, in the midst of a war that threatened the country they held so dear. It would be tempting to think of the Cottage as a pastoral retreat, a refuge from the chaos of war, but the evidence suggests otherwise. The White House may have been the “iron cage,” but life at the Soldiers’ Home brought Lincoln closer to the war and its human cost. Here Lincoln said, “my thoughts – my solicitude for this great country follows me wherever I go.” This place allowed Lincoln the time, space, and environment to create brave ideas that changed our nation.
